

Activity 1: Read the following passage and answer the questions.

It is another busy Monday at school. Students carry backpacks and textbooks as they move between classes. In science, the teacher is very experienced in science experiments and so she shows a few which students are interested in. Some students are great at understanding, others feel nervous about the upcoming tests. In mathematics, some students are proud of their progress, while others worry about falling behind because they are not good at mathematics. On the tennis court, students play and some are excited about tournaments, while others are afraid of losing them. Similar to eating healthy, playing sports at school is good for you- if you are not active and only sit and study, this can be bad for your mental health. Throughout it all, students are friendly to each other and school is an amazing place where everyone finds what they're interested in - even if they are terrible at the sport or subject they like.
