A Free Financial Tutorial

This is a beginner's guide to financial knowledge. It is especially for teenagers aged between 13 and 19 years old. There are five short videos to cover important basic topics. They include introduction to savings account, debit and credit cards, how to write cheques and how to use the automated teller machine (ATM). The total length of all five videos is 60 minutes. So far, 6,500 students have watched the tutorial. The creator of the tutorial, Samuel Ling, has worked in the financial industry for over 20 years and began offering this free tutorial to educate young people about finances.
