II. READING - PART 7: SINGLE PASSAGES

Overview

In Part 7 of the Reading Test, you will read passages of varying types and lengths and answer comprehension questions about them. The reading passages include types you might see in common business and everyday situations.

The passages may be of the following types:

- E-mails
- Letters
- Memos
- Agendas
- Advertisements
- Notices
- Articles
- Reports
- Forms
- Charts, tables and graphs
- Schedules

There is a total of 54 questions in Part 7 (Single Passages: 29 questions & Multiple Passages: 25 questions). You will answer a variety of types of comprehension questions. Comprehension question types will include the following:

- Main Idea: What is this report mainly about?
- Detail: Where does Ms. Kim work?
- Purpose: Why did Mr. Jones write the letter?
- Audience: Who is this article for?
- Inference: What can we infer about the writer of this e-mail?
- Vocabulary: The word "insight" in line 10 is closest in meaning to Remember!

1. Reading for Main Ideas

- Look for topic questions: What is this article about? What does this letter mainly discuss?
- Look for purpose questions: What is the purpose of this e-mail? Why was this memo written?
- As you read, ask yourself: What is the passage about? What is the purpose of the passage? Who is the passage written for?
- Remember, you do not need to read every word in order to understand the main ideas.
- You can often find information about the main idea near the beginning or end of a passage.
- Don't worry about words you do not understand. Keep reading until you reach the end.
- Look for words or phrases that are repeated. They may be important.

2. Reading for Details

- Look for Wh-questions (e.g. questions beginning with What, When, Why, How, etc.)
- Before you read, make sure you know what information you need to read for.
- Look for any headings or titles to help you find the part of the passage you need.
- Don't read every word. Focus only on finding the information you need.
- Don't worry about words you do not understand.
- When you find the part you need, read more carefully. Identify any key words or phrases.
- As soon as you have found the information you need, stop reading.

3. Making Inferences

- Look for questions such as Which of the following can be inferred from this e-mail? Which of these statements is probably true? What is implied about...?
- As you read, think about the meaning "behind" the words. Pay special attention to words and phrases with positive and negative meanings.
- Try to make deductions as you read, and draw conclusions; for example, about the relationship between the two writers, or what might happen next.
- Consider the whole passage before making any inferences.

A. Office Memos and Notices

MEMO

To: Linda, James, Keiko, Fernanda, and Marc
From: Sonia

Please note that I will be away for two weeks starting next Monday as I will be at the Graphic Designers Association Convention for the first four days and then on vacation for the rest. If you have any questions or concerns about our current projects during my absence, Jacob will be taking over for me, so please direct all questions to him. If it is an urgent matter, you can still contact me by voicemail or e-mail. I will be checking messages daily during the convention and every other day after that. Have a great couple of weeks, and I will see you all when I get back!

Sonia

What to look for

- What will Sonia be away for?
- Who will take over for her?
- What should you do if it is an emergency?

Questions 1 – 2 refer to the following memo.

MEMO

Hello, everyone.

I have recently noticed that there has been an increase in reimbursement claim forms being handed in without receipts. Some of you have been adding notes explaining what you are to be reimbursed for, but unfortunately I cannot accept them. The policy is that if you do not have a receipt, you will not be reimbursed for your expense—no exceptions.

I have also noticed that not all the forms are being filled in correctly. Please make sure to fill in your employee number as well as the type of purchase. This will make processing your claim much easier and therefore faster. So please, in the future, keep ahold of your receipts, and fill in the form completely.

Eileen Montgomery
Accounting Manager

- 1. What is the purpose of this memo?
(A) To issue reimbursement forms
(B) To give receipts back to employees
(C) To remind staff to follow procedures
(D) To outline a new company policy

- 2. What should employees do to claim reimbursements?
(A) Keep all receipts if they want reimbursement
(B) Fill out the top half of the reimbursement form
(C) Make a copy of their reimbursement forms
(D) Process their receipts before handing them in

Questions 3 – 4 refer to the following notice.

NOTICE TO RESIDENTS OF GRIFFITH APARTMENTS

May 18

RE: Fire alarms

As longtime residents know, there have been occasional false fire alarms in this building over the past few years. However, the last incident, on May 8, was not a false alarm. There was, in fact, a small fire on the fourth floor. The firefighters who responded expressed concern that so few residents actually left the building in response to the alarm.

Therefore, we'd like to remind you that whenever a fire alarm sounds, you MUST immediately vacate the building using the stairs and remain outside until firefighters announce that it is safe to return. Also, if you have a disability and would require assistance getting down the stairs in such an emergency, please let us know by e-mail as soon as possible at admin@griffith.com. We will keep a list of names and unit numbers, and we will provide it to the fire department so that rescue workers know which apartments to check first.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Management
Griffith Apartments
