

Use appropriate (ap-pro-pr-iate = correct or suitable) positional vocabulary to describe position and direction. The prepositions on this worksheet are: between, in the middle of, in/inside, outside, below, above, on top of, forwards and backwards.

This image shows the positions of some 3D shapes (three dimensional) Entry 2 Maths

Q1 Drag the appropriate preposition into the correct gap in these sentences.

The cylinder is the pyramid.

The sphere is of the cylinder.

The pyramid is the cylinder.

The cylinder is the cube and the cuboid.

The shape is called a cylinder.

on top between below
in the middle above

Q2 Drag the appropriate preposition into the correct gap in these sentences.

The bottles and glasses are the box.

The plant pot is the box.

inside

outside

Q3 Drag the appropriate preposition into the correct gap in these sentences.

If the car moves it will hit the tree.

If the car moves it will hit the lamppost.

forwards

backwards