Alice is talking about her working day. Listen to Alice and decide what job she does.

Listen again or read the text and decide if these sentences are true or false.

1. Alice goes to work an hour after she gets up.
2. Alice takes a shower in the morning.
3. Alice's job is easy.
4. Alice can relax in the summer.
5. Alice sometimes sleeps for six hours.

How many phrases in the text use the verb get?

My name is Alice. I get up early at six o'clock, have breakfast, and go to work at a quarter to seven. I get to work before eight, and then I make coffee! I work from half past eight until a quarter past four, but I don't really finish until five o'clock. When I leave work, I'm tired but happy. I get home around six, and then I have dinner and take a shower. I also work in the evening - sometimes I don't go to bed until midnight! Do I work hard? Yes, I do. But I love the children. And I don't work in the summer!

Study the sentences below.

- I also work in the evening. Sometimes I don't go to bed until midnight!
- Do I work hard? Yes, I do.

We use present simple to talk about things that happen regularly, or routines.

Practice

Change the sentences to questions and write short answers based on the information about Alice.

Alice gets up at six.

1. _____

I make coffee at work.

2. _____

Alice works for six hours.

3. _____

Alice takes a shower after dinner.

4. _____

I go to bed early.

5. _____

Teachers work hard.

6. _____

8. _____

English is a musical language! We make our voices go up (rise) or go down (fall) to show what we're saying.

Questions with yes/no answers have a rising intonation in English - our voices go up at the end. Try saying these questions with this intonation.

1. Do you work hard?
2. Do you get up early?
3. Does your sister go to bed late?
4. Does your family eat dinner at seven?
5. Are you Spanish?
6. Is he your brother?
7. Am I the winner?
8. Are they your parents?

Practice in pairs – take turns to ask a question with the correct intonation and give a short answer.

Speaking/writing

Work in pairs. Interview your partner about their routine. Make yes/no questions using the verbs in the box. Then ask your partner and make a note of their answers. Write a short text about their routine.

Example: get up / six

- Do you get up at six? No, I don't. I get up at seven.
- Keiko is a student. She gets up at seven.

1. get up / six
2. have breakfast / every day
3. go to work or school / eight
4. get to work or school / nine
5. finish work or school / six
6. leave work or school / tired
7. have dinner / 7:30
8. go to bed / 10:45

Extra practice/homework

Complete the text. Use the correct form of one of the verbs in the box. Be careful with negatives and questions.

cook	finish	get	not get home	work	write
get up	go to bed	not have	leave	live
