LEARNING TO LEARN: USING STUDY RESOURCES

Your English textbook helps you to organize your studies, but there are many other resources you can use. Sometimes you want to review an area you are not sure about. Sometimes you want to learn more about areas that interest you. It's a good idea to have your own learner's dictionary and a grammar practice book for your level. In addition, you can find lots of resources online including:

- vocabulary worksheets and practice exercises.
- grammar worksheets and practice exercises.
- videos about pronunciation.
- videos explaining a language point.
- translation tools.
- language-learning apps.

You can add the websites that you like or find the most helpful to your "favorites" list on your phone or computer.

- 1 Have you used any of these online resources? How useful were they?

- 2 Find an online resource that you haven't used before and try it this week.
