

Combine the sentences using relative pronouns. Make any necessary changes. Type the answers.

1. She is the queen. Her portrait is on British money.
2. This shiny metal isn't silver. It was once used as money.
3. It's the day after Thanksgiving. Many shops in the USA have got sales then.
4. They are a type of flying robot. Some companies use them to deliver.
5. There's a large Asian country. Most of our electronic goods are made there.
6. Ms Fortune was a writer. Her body was found in the cellar.
7. The museum was shut. I wanted to visit it.
8. The man told me you were out. He answered the phone.
9. The flight was fully booked. We wanted to travel on it.
10. The police are still trying to identify the body. It was found last week.

Use a relative pronoun to complete the following relative clauses.

1. A chain store is a type of business _____ operates in multiple locations with the same branding and products.
2. This is the bakery _____ you can always count on for fresh bread and pastries every morning.
3. This is the designer jacket _____ price tag shocked me—it costs more than a month's rent!
4. Online shopping allows you to compare price tags, _____ makes it easier to find the best deal for the same goods.
5. Weekends are the days _____ we enjoy delicious homemade meals prepared by my grandmother.
6. This is the clinic _____ I go for my regular check-up.
7. The doctor _____ has been treating me since childhood always gives me great advice during my check-up.
8. This is the store _____ I bought the short-sleeved shirt that I wore to the party.
9. The billboard, _____ is located on the highway, displays an advertisement for the new movie.
10. She is a self-made entrepreneur _____ built her business from scratch without any outside help.

