

MC: Everybody, I'd like to welcome Miss Nora, who's come all the way from (1)_____ to tell you about the ASEAN students (2)_____ camp. Miss Nora.

Nora: Hello everyone. I helped (3)_____ the summer camp by visiting schools around ASEAN to explain what we do and get students like you to (4)_____. Every summer we visit a different ASEAN (5)_____ with students from around Southeast Asia. The camp's primary aim is to give students an (6)_____ to learn about other ASEAN cultures. We do this by organizing events with local people in order to learn about their food, festivals and even their (7)_____. In a minute, you'll receive their (8)_____ for this year's camp. But first, let me give some examples of what you can expect. Last year, we went to Malaysia where students learn to cook nasi lemak, the (9)_____ dish. They also got to explore famous museums and (10)_____ and learn some basic words in Malay, the official language. The trip highlight was our visit to Borneo for a famous harvest (11)_____ called Kaamatan. It's a huge event where everyone wears colorful (12)_____ including us. We love listening to (13)_____ (14)_____, and we even learned a special dance. It was a great (15)_____. Look at the photos on our website when you get home. Our web address is on the back of itinerary which I'll give to you now.