One winter evening Lena and her brother Harry B3
.....video games while their mum and dad were watching TV. The living room was very cosy with a nice log fire and everyone was happy. Then it started raining outside and the wind was strong and stormy. The sky B4..... by flashes of lightning and the thunder was deafening. Suddenly, all the lights went out and the electrical appliances stopped B5
"Now what are we B6?" asked Dad, who wanted B7 a football match on TV. He went off in search of candles, but unfortunately they didn't have any.
"No problem." said Mum. "I B8 just our old gas camping lamp and stove in one of the kitchen cupboards." Half an hour later everyone was drinking hot tea and eating slices of toasted bread which Mum cooked in front of the log fire! They told each other funny stories, as the butter ran down their fingers.
Everyone said that they B9 themselves so much for ages, even if Dad had missed the football match. Then suddenly the lights came on again and everything was back to normal.

Jerry stared worriedly out of the window. He had been up studying most of the night and now his exam was about to start. Even though he had revised the same things again and again, he wasn't at all sure how B10 he would be. It had been his decision to take this B11 programming course, but that didn't mean he wasn't eager to pass. In fact, he wanted to get a good mark as he had hopes of becoming a software B12 This was Jerry's golden opportunity but he felt his hand shaking as he picked up his pen to write his name on the paper. The exam was particularly B13 as he knew his future career might be at stake.
He took a deep breath as he opened the exam paper that was handed to him. This was the moment of truth. Then he gave a little gasp of B14 He knew the answers to all the questions; all last night's revision had paid off. He was going to do just fine!
