Hi, I'm Lily, and I live in Japan. We have many beautiful traditions and festivals. My favorite festival is the Cherry Blossom Festival in spring. During the festival, my family and I go to the park to enjoy the beautiful cherry blossoms. We have a picnic under the trees and take lots of photos. My brother loves flying kites at the park during the festival.

In summer, we celebrate the Tanabata Festival. This festival is about making wishes. We write our wishes on colorful papers and hang them on bamboo trees. My favorite part of this festival is the fireworks show at night. Festivals in Japan are so much fun!
