

Traditional British Christmas Food

1. Match the images to the names of British Christmas symbols.

Write them under the pictures.

Christmas postcard

family gathering

gift exchanges

shopping spree

stockings

reindeer

Santa Claus

Christmas lights

2. Match the images to the names of British Christmas dishes and drinks. Which of the Christmas dishes or drinks would you like to try?

1. eggnog
2. duck
3. Christmas pudding or plum pudding
4. ham
5. mince pie (or minced meat pie)
6. gingerbread house
7. "gingerbread men"

3. What are the words from the list? Meat, sweet dishes or drinks?

duck		Christmas pudding or plum pudding
ham		mince pie (or minced meat pie)
eggnog		pheasant
gingerbread house		turkey
"gingerbread men"		goose

4. Watch the video and mark the sentences as True (T) or False (F).

1. The traditional Christmas meal has not changed over the years.
2. Christmas pudding is made with several different kinds of mixed fruits.
3. Christmas pudding is served on New Year's Day.
4. Gingerbread minced pie was sometimes lit aflame before being brought to the table.
5. Another Christmas dish is mince pie also called minced meat pie.
6. Mince pies are drinks.
7. The most popular meats served at Christmas time in the UK have always been ham, goose, duck, and pheasant.
8. One of the more popular Christmas desserts is typically made in the form of small animals.
9. Minced pie is also used to create small houses.
10. Eggnog is a sweet drink made with ginger.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Tly6suosH7Y>