COUNTRY FACT FILE

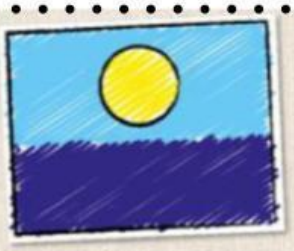

DESCRIPTION

NAME OF THE COUNTRY

WHAT'S POPULAR

FUN FACTS

FLAG

PHOTO

PHOTO

LIVEWORKSHEETS

1. Marvina	2. Frostlandia
COUNTRY FACT FILE • Nationality: Marvinian • Languages: English and Marvish • Capital city: Coral Bay • Population: 42,000 • Currency: Marvinian Shell • Continent: South America	COUNTRY FACT FILE • Nationality: Frostlander • Languages: Frostic and English • Capital city: Snowhaven • Population: 18,500 • Currency: Frost coin • Continent: Europe
DESCRIPTION Marvina is a tropical island off the coast of Brazil. It has lush rainforests and crystal-clear lakes. Coral Bay, the capital, is full of colorful houses and music festivals. Life in Marvina is peaceful but full of culture.	DESCRIPTION Frostlandia is a mountainous country surrounded by glaciers. Snowhaven, its capital, is a cozy city filled with warm cafes and snowy streets. Life here is quiet and full of winter sports.
WHAT'S POPULAR IN MARVINA? • National sport: Kayaking • Popular food: Grilled mango fish and coconut bread • Famous people: Zara Mela (chef), Tito Rumbal (musician)	WHAT'S POPULAR IN FROSTLANDIA? • National sport: Ice climbing • Popular food: Melted cheese soup and berry pies • Famous people: Rina Frost (explorer), Lars Ivalo (skier)
FLAG The Marvinian flag has green, blue, and white. Green represents the forests, blue for the rivers, and white for peace.	FLAG The Frostlandian flag is white, grey, and light blue. It symbolizes snow, ice, and the frozen lakes.
FUN FACTS • The average temperature in Marvina is 28°C all year. • Schools have "lake lessons" where students learn while boating. • Parrots are considered sacred animals!	FUN FACTS • Frostlandia has 200 days of snow per year. • People celebrate "Midnight Sun Day" when the sun never sets. • Huskies are the main form of transport!

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Sunora	4. Mountora
COUNTRY FACT FILE • Nationality: Sunoran • Languages: Sunic and English • Capital city: Golden Bay • Population: 60,000 • Currency: Sun Dollar • Continent: Africa	COUNTRY FACT FILE • Nationality: Mountorian • Languages: Mountic and English • Capital city: Peakville • Population: 35,000 • Currency: Mountain Note • Continent: Asia
DESCRIPTION Sunora is located along the African coast and has endless sunny beaches. Golden Bay, its capital, is famous for its golden sands and seafood markets. Life in Sunora is full of sunshine and beach vibes.	DESCRIPTION Mountora is a land of towering mountains and dense forests. Peakville, the capital, is built on high cliffs and offers stunning views of the valleys. Mountora is known for its adventurous spirit.
WHAT'S POPULAR IN SUNORA? • National sport: Beach volleyball • Popular food: Grilled prawns and pineapple rice • Famous people: Jora Lume (artist), Deni Nali (volleyball star)	WHAT'S POPULAR IN MOUNTORA? • National sport: Rock climbing • Popular food: Spiced mountain stew and herbal tea • Famous people: Miro Zen (climber), Sora Li (writer)
FLAG The Sunoran flag is gold, orange, and blue, representing the sun, beaches, and ocean.	FLAG The Mountorian flag features green, black, and white. Green stands for forests, black for mountains, and white for snowy peaks
FUN FACTS • Sunora holds a “Sun Festival” every year. • The country gets over 300 sunny days annually. • Sea turtles are seen as lucky animals!	FUN FACTS • Mountora has the world’s highest natural waterfall. • Mountain goats freely roam the cities. • Local schools teach survival skills in the mountains.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS