I wasn't happy last year. I didn't like my job and I was always very busy at work, so I didn't <sup>1</sup> spend time with my family or friends. My flat was near my office, but it was very small, and I didn't like living there. In January, I decided to <sup>2</sup> move jobs and <sup>3</sup> try something different! I found a great job in a small town near the sea and I <sup>4</sup> built to a house near my new office. I didn't know anyone in the town, so I <sup>5</sup> started a running club. I <sup>6</sup> made lots of new friends and now I see them every week.
