

RELATIVE PRONOUNS → WHO / THAT

La chica, que lleva un vestido rosa, está llorando.	El caracol, que lleva una bufanda amarilla, es pequeño.
The girl, who is wearing a pink dress, is crying.	The snail, that is wearing a yellow scarf, is small.

1) Complete the sentences using "who" or "that".

The man _____ is wearing a jacket, is my father.

The dog _____ is wearing a red necklace, is a bulldog.

The table _____ is in the dining room, is made of wood.

Anna _____ is wearing a denim overall, is my friend.

Edward and Jake _____ are wearing colourful swim trunks, are playing at the beach.

The pen _____ is pink, is my favourite one.

The actor _____ is tall and handsome, is performing Sherlock Holmes.

The cat _____ is wearing a blue bow, is so cute.

The sofa _____ is in the living room, is made of red velvet.

Susan and Mike _____ are drawing, are best friends.

The teddy bear _____ is on my bed, is brown and soft.

2) Read the two sentences. Write one sentence.

The snail wears a blue hat.

The snail lives in the forest.

My schoolbag is pink and orange.

My schoolbag is big.

John and Luke are wearing the same trousers.

John and Luke are best friends.

The house is white and green.

The house is mine.