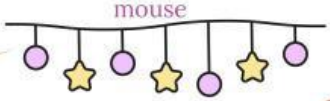
10 Points

Ordering activity

unit 7
Lesson four
Country mouse and city mouse



After choosing how you want to see the story, you picked the ordering activity! This fun activity gives you 10 points. Enjoy it and do your best!

Choose the correct answer:

1. What lesson do the two mice learn by the end of the story?

The city mouse likes the country better than the city.	The two mice learn they are happiest in their own homes.	The country mouse dislikes the noise in the city.

2. What does the city mouse invite the country mouse to do?

Stay in the country forever.	Visit the city to see the bright lights	Go back to the city for a vacation

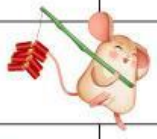
3. What surprises the country mouse in the city?

The bright lights of the city.	The noise, smoke, and strange new smells in the city.	The food in the city.

4.What message does the author want to share through this story?

City life is better than country life.	Everyone feels comfortable in their own environment, even if it's different from others.	Friends should never visit each other's homes.

5.What choice does the country mouse make after visiting the city?



The country mouse decides to stay in the city.	Everyone feels comfortable in their own environment, even if it's different from others.	The country mouse prefers the quiet and calm of the country.

Now that you've answered the questions, use your understanding to arrange the following events from the story in the correct order.

Arrange the Events in the Correct Sequence

	The two mice learn they are happiest in their own homes.
1	The city mouse invited the country mouse to see the bright lights of the city.
	The two friends took the train to the city, excited for the new adventure
	The country mouse became frightened by the loud noises and smoke in the city.
	They saw a cat and had to run and hide to be safe.

LIVEWORKSHEETS