

Vocabulary training

Finance, Shops and Services

Match each question to its correct answer from the options provided.

1. Where do people go to buy fresh bread? _____
2. What are they doing at the intersection? _____
3. Where were you shopping when I called? _____
4. Why was Mike standing near the ATM for so long? _____
5. Where will you buy a gift for Sarah's birthday? _____
6. Can you buy fresh salmon at the butcher's? _____
7. If you could choose, would you stay in a B&B or a five-star hotel? _____
8. What would you get if you went to the jeweler's? _____
9. Where can you go to get a manicure or a facial? _____
10. What is the main purpose of a factory? _____
11. What kind of clothes do you usually take to the dry cleaners? _____
12. Why is a catering service often hired for events? _____
13. What makes a boutique different from a chain store? _____
14. How do hardware shops help with home improvement? _____
15. What do vendors use at markets to display their products? _____

- a) The first one sells unique, high-quality items, while the second focuses on affordable, mass-produced goods.
- b) No, you have to go to the fishmonger's for that.
- c) Because it provides high-quality food and takes the stress off the host.
- d) I'd pick a luxury experience, for sure.
- e) You can go to a beauty parlor for those services.
- f) They sell tools, paint, and materials for DIY projects.
- g) They go to a bakery.
- h) He was trying to withdraw money, but the machine wasn't working.
- i) It is used to produce goods like clothing, electronics, or cars.
- j) They use a stall to show their goods.
- k) I was at the greengrocer's buying some vegetables.
- l) Well, mostly it's delicate or expensive clothes like suits or dresses.
- m) I'll get it from the gift shop in the mall.
- n) I'd buy a necklace for my sister's wedding.
- o) They're fixing the traffic light—it's been broken all day.

