GIFT-GIVING CUSTOMS IN VIET NAM

Gift-giving is important in Viet Nam because of the significance of interpersonal relationships in Vietnamese culture.

First and foremost, do not encourage corruption. There is a clear cut between gift-giving and bribery. Nevertheless, it is common in Viet Nam for exchanging small gifts on certain occasions such as anniversaries, Tet holidays... to express respect, love, appreciation, or gratitude.

Gift-giving customs depend on the context. If it is a private gift for one Vietnamese partner you should give the gift at a private occasion. If you have a gift for the whole office or company, you should give it after the business meeting with the whole office employee.

Do not wrap a gift in black paper because this color is unlucky and associated with funerals in Viet Nam. Gifts that symbolize cutting such as scissors, knives, and other sharp objects should be avoided because they mean the cutting of the relationship.

Vietnamese may or may not open these gifts when they are received; leave the option to them. You will also receive gifts and should defer to your host as to whether you should open them when receiving or not. Regardless of when it is opened or what it is, profuse thanks are always appropriate.

- According to the passage, why is gift-giving important in Viet Nam?
 - Because it helps to establish a friendship.
 - Because it's common in Vietnamese culture.
 - Because it's the best way to build up a stable relationship.
 - Because personal relationships play a vital role in Vietnamese culture.
- Which of the followings should not be a reason for gift-giving?

A. To show appreciation	B. To bribe somebody
C. To express gratitude	D. To show affection
- When giving a gift, you should _____.
 - wrap it in black or white paper
 - give it in the business meeting
 - never give sharp objects, such as knives or scissors
 - avoid giving it on a private occasion
- When receiving a gift, you should _____.

A. always say "thank you"	B. try to find what is it
C. open it in front of the giver	D. ask your host to open it
- Which of the following is NOT true about gift-giving customs in Viet Nam?
 - Gift-giving is a good way of strengthening relationships.
 - Gifts for your partners should be given at private occasions.
 - You should avoid giving anything sharp.
 - It is considered rude not to open the gift in front of the giver.
