

HONORING THE PARENTS

In order to honor my parents, I should mention the appropriate behavior for the following cases:

The Case	The Behavior
My mother went to visit her sick friend, leaving my younger brothers at home.
My father was ill; he was taken to the hospital
My mother prepares delicious food.
My father advises me to stay away from bad companions.
My mother is worried when I stay late outside the house.
My father feels sad when I falter in my studies.
My mother loves cleanliness, and says that it is one of the believer's features.

DRAG AND DROP

I will follow her and help her in cleaning.

I will say sorry to her and never stay late outside.

I will thank her and love her.

I will ask dua'a and visit him

I will listen to him and obey his advice

I will take care of my brothers

I will say sorry to him and work hard for the next time.
