II. READING (2.5 points)

TASK 1 Read the passage. Circle the best answer A, B, or C to each of the questions.

Global warming is said to be a culprit of many destructive natural damages. Many research shows that glaciers in Antarctica and Greenland are melting quickly, which has a detrimental influence on ocean currents. Cold lands are habitats of various polar mammals; therefore, ice melting means that their homeland is shrinking in size, and they will be on the brink of extinction. Furthermore, scientists point out that the global rising temperature results in the death of many coral reefs in many regions and the disappearance of various kinds of fish. It is not to mention the fact that human life has also been threatened. Most meteorologists and marine experts agree that the change of average heat worldwide links to the extensive storms and hurricanes, and other naturally severe disasters happening around the planet. Recently, a devastating tornado has badly torn a coastal state in the USA, killing at least 70 people and destroying a lot of houses and infrastructure. The town mayor said that he had never seen such a violently tremendous natural phenomenon before. Many European countries have also witnessed the rage of Mother Nature when they have been hit by ferocious storms taking months to recover the local people's normal life. No one will know exactly the future, but the worst scenario of the earth can be predictable for sure if humans continue treating the environment as they are doing. Global warming is an emergency issue that should be resolved immediately.

1. What is the passage mainly about?
 - A. Disastrous results of global warming.
 - B. How bad humans are treating the earth.
 - C. The deadly storms and tornadoes occurred in many countries.
 - D. The reason why glaciers are melting.
2. What does the word 'they' in line 5 mean?
 - A. Glaciers
 - B. Cold lands
 - C. The polar mammals
 - D. The habitats of the polar mammals
3. According to the text, what natural disaster has happened?
 - A. A hurricane in the USA
 - B. Storms of different types in some European countries and the USA
 - C. Some droughts and hurricanes in the USA and European countries
 - D. A flood and a storm in the USA and European countries
4. According to the text, where has suffered badly in a destructive tornado lately?

- A. A mountainous area in a European country
- B. A coastal state in Canada
- C. A central state in the USA
- D. A seaside state in the USA

5. Without timely actions, the worst future of humans' life can be _____.

- A. solved immediately
- B. seen by no one
- C. certainly forecast
- D. surely avoided

TASK 2 Complete the reading passage. Write ONE suitable word in each blank.

In many countries, hydroelectric power plants play an important role in supplying electricity to households, to manufacturers, and other commercial and service industries etc. (1) _____ this method in power production brings some benefits, there are some potential drawbacks we should seriously take into account. The first one is the substantial damages to the surrounding (2) _____ where power plants are built. A large lake called a dam is formed to store water, which, under certain circumstances, could flood an extensive area and destroy habitats of both plants and (3) _____ animals living in this region. The second pitfall is that a dam could have many potential accidents for people working there when it is in the construction process and even when it comes (4) _____ use. Because of this possibility of disadvantages, the other ways which are greener and more sustainable in (5) _____ generation should be developed such as wind or solar power.
