

Part 3

Câu: 32-34

W: Hi, it's Martina from Accounting. I'd like to reserve the main conference room for a I'll be leading on Friday with from our New York office.

M: Sure, that shouldn't be a problem.
.....?

W: It's from nine to eleven A.M.

M: OK I'll block off that time slot for you. Do you need any besides a laptop and projector?

W: No, but I'll so I can go in a little early and set up. Can pick that up on Friday morning?

M: Absolutely.

32. What is the woman preparing for?

- (A) A move to a new city
- (B) A business trip
- (C) A building tour
- (D) A meeting with visiting colleagues

33. Who most likely is the man?

- (A) An accountant
- (B) An administrative assistant
- (C) A marketing director
- (D) A company president

34. What does the woman want to pick up on Friday morning?

- (A) A building map
- (B) A room key
- (C) An ID card
- (D) A parking pass

Câu 35-37:

W: Satoshi, have you already started working on the for next year?

M: Not yet... but I do plan to start it in the next day or so.

W: OK, perfect. I'd like to add some new next year if we can afford it. I thought one might be enough, but I realized we'll probably need three to handle our company's

M: No problem. I can include that in the budget. I'll just about the positions, including the job titles and expected salaries. Could you send that to me?

35. What task is the man responsible for?

- A. Writing a budget
- B. Reviewing job applications
- C. Organizing a company newsletter
- D. Updating an employee handbook

36. What does the woman want to do next year?

- A. Organize a trade show
- B. Open a new store
- C. Redesign a product catalog
- D. Hire some team members

37. What does the man ask the woman to do?

- A. Order some business cards
- B. Write a press release
- C. Provide some additional details
- D. Set up a meeting time

Câu 38-40

M: Welcome to the Business Suit Outlet. How can I help you?

W: Hello, I'm next week, and I wanted to buy a new suit.

M: Congratulations! Do you have anything particular in mind?

W: Well, there's one in your display window that looks nice. But

M: That one only comes in But we do have suits in that are fashionable and appropriate for business.

W: OK. I can only spend 150 dollars, and I'd like a style similar to the one in the window.

M: Let me show you some suits in that price range. By the way, any needed for the suit are included in the price

38. What does the woman need a suit for?

- A. A job interview
- B. A fashion show
- C. A family celebration
- D. A television appearance

39. What does the woman dislike about a suit on a display?

- A. The fabric
- B. The price
- C. The style
- D. The color

40. What does the man say that the price includes?

- A. Some accessories
- B. Alterations
- C. Sales tax
- D. Delivery

Câu 41 – 43

W-Br Ellenville Public Library. How can I help you?

M-Cn Hi, I'm calling from the company Grover and James. We're interested in a scene for a in the lobby of the library. Its historic is just what we're looking for.

W-Br Well... we actually had a film shoot in a our library last year. And the thing is... they said it would and it ended up taking I'm concerned that will

M-Cn I understand, but this is a scene.

W-Br Well, we have a board I could give you ten minutes at the beginning to give us the details.

41. What kind of a business does the man most likely work for?

- (A) A legal consulting firm
- (B) An architecture firm
- (C) A film production company
- (D) A book publishing company

42. What does the woman say she is concerned about?

- (A) The length of a project
- (B) The cost of an order
- (C) The opinion of the public
- (D) The skills of some workers

43. What does the woman agree to let the man do?

- (A) Submit an application
- (B) Speak at a meeting
- (C) Review some books
- (D) Measure a space