

MIDTERM TEST

1. Give the figurative meaning of the following sentence, “The exam was a piece of cake.”
2. Give (a) presupposition(s) for the following sentence, “I can’t go out now because my mother is ill.”
3. State the relationship between the underlined words in the following sentence, “I am clearly content with this clear content.”
4. Give the figure of speech used in the following sentence, “The car ran very fast and caused a serious accident.”
5. Give the implicature for the following conversation:
Lan: Let’s go to the movie tonight.
Nam: My mother is coming tonight.
6. Indicate the relationships between the following pair of words: tool and saw.
7. Write the entailment for the following sentence, “He stole something.”
8. Explain the semantic ambiguity in the following sentence by giving two sentences with similar meanings to the original sentence, but different ones from each other, “Lan gave her dog food.” (Note: Use active voice only.)
  - a.
  - b.

9. In the following situation, what illocutionary act is carried out by the utterance: A teacher of English says to one of his intermediate-level student in a speaking class, “Can you speak English”?
10. Give the paraphrase for the following sentence: John asked me if he could meet me then.