

Public Places

Direction:

- Identify the meaning of public places on the left side
- Find the meaning of the description on the right side
- Drag the place and then drop to the appropriate function

It is a retail store that sells medications, health products, personal care items, and sometimes convenience goods. It often has licensed pharmacists who can provide advice on medications and health-related issues.

It is a large retail store that sells a wide variety of food and household items. It typically includes sections for fresh produce, meats, dairy products, and other grocery items, allowing customers to shop for their daily needs.

It is a place where goods, especially food and household items, are bought and sold. It can be a physical location, like a farmer's market or a local grocery store, where vendors offer fresh produce, meats, dairy products, and other essentials. Markets provide a space for consumers to purchase everyday items and often foster community interactions.

It is an establishment that prepares and serves food and beverages to customers. It can range from casual dining to fine dining, offering various cuisines and dining experiences.

It is a facility that sells fuel for vehicles, such as gasoline or diesel. It typically includes pumps for dispensing fuel and may also offer additional services like convenience stores, car washes, and maintenance services. Gas stations are essential for providing energy to vehicles.

It is a facility that enables air travel by providing runways for airplanes to take off and land. It includes terminals for passengers to check in, board flights, and access various services related to air travel.

It is a financial institution that provides services such as accepting deposits, offering loans, and facilitating transactions. It helps individuals and businesses manage their finances and savings.

It is a healthcare facility that provides medical treatment and care for patients. It offers services such as emergency care, surgeries, maternity care, and specialized medical treatments.

It is a public space designed for recreation and relaxation. It typically features green spaces, walking paths, playgrounds, and picnic areas, providing a place for people to enjoy nature and outdoor activities.

It is an educational institution where students receive instruction in various subjects. It plays a crucial role in the development of knowledge, skills, and social values in children and young adults.

It is a retail establishment that sells books, magazines, and other reading materials. It may also offer related items such as stationery or gifts, serving as a space for book lovers to explore literature.