

VOCABULARY

describing attitudes

Choose the correct options to complete the sentences.

- 1 Reading about how people sometimes just freeze in exams really struck a chord / trotted out a trite phrase with me. I've experienced the same thing, many times.
- 2 The advice about never giving up was, in my opinion, spot on / way too oversimplistic. It's misguided to say you should 'never' do something.
- 3 People might think it's a sweeping statement / spot on, but I'd say that to be successful at something you just need to practise.
- 4 It's a complete fallacy / an element of truth to claim you can become proficient in a foreign language within a few weeks, as the adverts suggest – we all know that can't be done. People strike a chord / trot out these trite phrases to get us to buy things.
- 5 I get irritated when I hear people coming out with spot on / vacuous comments on topics that are actually quite complex.
- 6 I think it's an element of truth / patently not true that our ability to learn a new language disappears as we become older.
- 7 It rings true / is a complete fallacy for me when people say that all things are good in moderation. Therefore, some level of failure is helpful to us, and beyond a certain point it becomes harmful.

- 1 The idea that failure creates opportunities really true for me.
a calls b rings c strikes
- 2 To say all successful people are rich is a bit of a statement.
a brushing b wiping c sweeping
- 3 What you said about your experience when travelling really struck a chord me.
a for b to c with
- 4 The idea that we can learn from mistakes is spot, in my opinion.
a on b in c off
- 5 Some of the things people believe about politicians are complete a fallacies b paradoxes c deviations
- 6 There's of truth in the idea, but it's not without its problems.
a a component b an element c a segment
- 7 I hate the way the media just out these trite phrases all the time.
a trot b run c spread
- 8 You can't say that. It's not true.
a officially b patently c openly

4 Complete the sentences with the words in the box.
There are three words you do not need.

chord	element	fallacy	patently	ring	spot
sweeping	trot

- 1 I suppose there's an _____ of truth in what he's saying, but I still don't trust him.
- 2 In my opinion, Eoin was _____ on when he asked that question at the meeting.
- 3 They make these _____ statements about how everything's going to change, but trust me, nothing will.
- 4 The politician came out with something yesterday that was _____ not true.
- 5 The policy on housing will strike a _____ with a large number of people in the area.