

Activity 1: Match the words to the pictures. Write the letter next to the word.

1. messy _____	A.
2. shelves _____	B.
3. schedule _____	C.
4. chores _____	D.
5. dustbin _____	E.
6. checklist _____	F.
7. take out the rubbish _____	G.
8. wipe down counters _____	H.

Activity 2: Read the sentences. Spot the mistakes and rewrite the sentences.

1. He never put offs taking out the rubbish.

2. Every Monday, she put away her books and clothes.

3. Have Estella put together a checklist for chores yet?

4. They puts up with cleaning the dustbin every weekend.

5. The children puts up a shelf in the garage

Activity 3: Underline the correct option for each sentence.

1. The children put away / put up new shelves in their room every year to make space for more books.

2. She puts away / puts together her clothes after every laundry day.

3. Every weekend, he puts up / puts off wiping down the kitchen counters.

4. My brother and I put together / put up a fight a new checklist for our weekly chores.

5. Our neighbours put up with / put off the noise from the nearby construction without complaining.

Activity 4: Complete the sentences with your own words.

1. I put off doing my chores because

2. I feel good about myself when I put away

3. If I could create a checklist of chores for my parents, it would include

4. Last weekend, my friends and I put up

5. The chore I put up the biggest fight about is

Activity 5: Write your own answers to the following questions

1. Do you prefer to put away your clothes immediately or put it off until later? Why?

2. What chore do you absolutely refuse to put up with? Why?

3. Have you ever put up a fight when asked to do a chore? What happened?
