
1. What emotions does the narrator associate with his school life in the English village?
 - o A) Joy and excitement
 - o B) Fear and uncertainty
 - o C) Boredom and indifference
 - o D) Anger and frustration
2. How does the narrator describe his relationship with his namesake, William Wilson?
 - o A) They were best friends who shared everything.
 - o B) They were rivals who competed for leadership.
 - o C) They had a mutual respect for each other's abilities.
 - o D) They ignored each other completely.
3. According to the text, what was the narrator's reaction to Wilson's opposition?
 - o A) Indifference in public, but secret fear
 - o B) Open hostility and aggression
 - o C) Happiness and satisfaction
 - o D) Complete acceptance of defeat
4. What does the narrator imply about Wilson's intentions in their rivalry?
 - o A) Wilson wants to be the leader.
 - o B) Wilson aims to support the narrator.
 - o C) Wilson seeks to undermine the narrator's success.
 - o D) Wilson desires to be friends with the narrator.
5. What does the narrator feel about Wilson's sympathy towards him?
 - o A) It is a source of comfort.
 - o B) It is unwelcome and condescending.
 - o C) It encourages the narrator to improve.
 - o D) It makes the rivalry more intense.