

1. What surprising coincidence did the narrator discover about Wilson after leaving school?
 - o A) They were born on the same date.
 - o B) They lived in the same neighborhood.
 - o C) They had the same teachers.
 - o D) They were best friends.
2. How did the narrator feel about Wilson despite their frequent quarrels?
 - o A) He hated him completely.
 - o B) He was indifferent towards him.
 - o C) They were both friends and enemies.
 - o D) He respected him and found him interesting.
3. What was Wilson's weakness that the narrator exploited in their interactions?
 - o A) His fear of failure.
 - o B) His inability to dress well.
 - o C) His quiet voice.
 - o D) His clumsiness.
4. How did Wilson seek revenge on the narrator?
 - o A) By refusing to speak to him.
 - o B) By copying his movements and voice.
 - o C) By spreading rumors about him.
 - o D) By challenging him to fights.
5. What effect did Wilson's ability to mimic the narrator have on their peers?
 - o A) They praised the narrator for being unique.
 - o B) They noticed the mimicry and mocked Wilson.
 - o C) They joined in the laughter without understanding the situation.
 - o D) They supported the narrator in confronting Wilson.