

HAVING A PEN FRIEND

Read the text and choose the correct word for each blank.

I've had an American pen friend (1) _____ I was twelve years old. So we have been writing to (2) _____ other for four years. There are many good things about having a pen friend. I think it is important that you write to someone (3) _____ is the same age as you because then you will probably share some interests. Also, you should remember that (4) _____ you want to improve your language skills, you should have a pen friend that speaks the language that you are learning. Some people even become good friends with their pen friend and they go to visit them. This is really special thing as you get to meet their family and see how their life really (5) _____. But you shouldn't think that pen friends are just for young people. People of (6) _____ ages enjoy writing letters, or even sending emails, so it's never too late to start.

