Labels on the left side:

- Nét vẽ (Drawing stroke)
- Hình khối (Shape)
- Thanh công cụ (Tool bar)

Labels on the right side:

- Bảng màu (Color palette)
- Công cụ vẽ (Drawing tool)
- Vùng trang vẽ (Drawing area)

Orange boxes with arrows pointing to the interface:

- Two boxes pointing to the 'File' and 'Home' menu items.
- One box pointing to the 'Brushes' tool in the ribbon.
- One box pointing to the 'Fill' color palette.
- One box pointing to the 'Shape' tool in the ribbon.
- One box pointing to the 'Drawing area'.
