

1 Match the words to the definitions. There are two extra definitions.

- |                |          |
|----------------|----------|
| 1 historic     | B |
| 2 fresh        | .....    |
| 3 spectacular  | .....    |
| 4 traditional  | .....    |
| 5 unusual      | .....    |
| 6 brand new    | .....    |
| 7 original     | .....    |
| 8 contemporary | .....    |

- A completely new
 B important in history
 C new or different
 D very exciting to look at
 E following ways of behaving that have continued for a long time
 F ugly and unpleasant
 G different and not ordinary
 H of the present time
 I special and not the same as other things
 J warm and comfortable

2 Complete the sentences.

- It's a very original ..... style. Nothing like it has been seen before.
- The skyscraper is b ..... n ..... It was only finished last month.
- The museum is a c ..... example of 19th-century architecture.
- This room is so c ..... ! It's warm and comfortable.
- This building is very m ..... - everything inside is controlled by smartphone.
- The new train station isn't boring or ugly. It's very s ..... , with lots of interesting new designs.

3 Complete the table with adjectives from Exercises 1 and 2.

Age	Opinion
historic	fresh

4 Match the adjectives to words with a similar meaning. There are two extra words.

ancient	brand new	classic	enormous
exhausted	freezing	terrible	unusual

- new: brand new
- bad: .....
- big: .....
- cold: .....
- tired: .....
- old: .....

5 Complete the sentences with words from Exercise 4.

- The pyramids are absolutely ancient .....
- I'm very ..... I didn't sleep enough.
- This building is absolutely ..... It's 828 metres high!
- The film was incredibly ..... We all hated it.
- It's very ..... I think it's -10°C.

6 Choose the best options.

I live in <sup>1</sup> an absolutely / a very / an originally spectacular building. Everyone loves it. It's about 100 years old, and it's <sup>2</sup> modern / fresh / historic, too. A <sup>3</sup> talented / fresh / sensible writer used to live here. It's <sup>4</sup> original / ancient / unusual because it's bright yellow - the only colourful building in the street. My apartment isn't <sup>5</sup> very / anything / absolutely big, but it's comfortable and <sup>6</sup> old / freezing / cosy. A few years ago, there was a fire in the downstairs apartment. Luckily, firefighters <sup>7</sup> burned down / put out / blew away the fire quickly. Later, when they <sup>8</sup> designed / customised / rebuilt the apartment, they put in <sup>9</sup> a traditional / an original / a brand-new lift as well, to my apartment on the top floor!