

Topics and subjects

1. For each image, write the topic you think it is about.

2. Order the following dialogs to form the conversation between Alex and his teacher

() Alex: So, I learn English and new topics at the same time?

() Alex: What's CBI?

(1) Teacher: Hi, Alex! Today, I want to tell you about a method we'll use called CBI.

() Teacher: You practice all four skills—reading, writing, speaking, and listening—while learning about a subject. It's useful because it makes learning meaningful and prepares you to use English in real-life situations.

() Alex: How does it work?

() Teacher: It stands for Content-Based Instruction. It helps you learn English by focusing on interesting topics, like science or history, instead of just grammar.

() Teacher: Exactly! It's great for improving your language and critical thinking skills.

Topics and subjects

3. Choose the best answer for each question About the Alex' conversati6n

1. What does CBI stand for?

- a) Content-Based Interaction
- b) Content-Based Instruction
- c) Creative-Based Instruction

1. What kind of skills can students practice with CBI?

- a) Grammar only
- b) Reading, writing, speaking, and listening
- c) Speaking and reading only

1. Why is CBI useful?

- a) Because it focuses only on grammar
- b) Because it helps students memorize vocabulary
- c) Because it makes learning meaningful and prepares students for real-life

situations

1. According to the teacher, what additional benefit does CBI offer?

- a) Improves critical thinking skills
- b) Helps memorize grammar rules faster
- c) Focuses only on one topic at a time

4. Look at the following image. Complete the sentences using the words in the box to describe what is happening in the picture.

learning

language

experiment

scientific

1. In a CBI class, the focus is on _____ scientific vocabulary in English.

2. Students develop their _____ skills while conducting a _____ in a real-world context.

3. The materials used in CBI are _____ texts.

Topics and subjects

5. Read the text: What's CBI?

Content-Based Instruction (CBI) is a method where students learn a language through meaningful topics like science or art. It combines all skills—reading, writing, speaking, and listening—into activities such as reading articles or discussing ideas. CBI motivates learners by focusing on real-world content and helps prepare them for academic or professional challenges.

Answer with yes or no:

- Does CBI focus on real-world topics?
- Is grammar the main focus of CBI?
- Can CBI include reading and listening activities?

Complete the sentences;

- CBI is useful because...
- A key feature of CBI is...
- Students can learn topics such as.

6. Write 5 sentences proposing how to learn different things.

example:

Students can read about their favorite artists and learn about adjectives and biographies.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

7. In pairs and with the help of the cards, describe the book of the subject you have for your partner to guess.