

Fill in the blanks with can or can't. Use the second sentence to help you decide.

1. I ___ swim very well. I always win races at the pool.
2. My little sister ___ tie her shoelaces yet. She's still learning.
3. You ___ borrow my book if you need it. I finished reading it yesterday.
4. We ___ see the stars tonight. It's too cloudy outside.
5. He ___ run 10 kilometres without stopping. He's a great athlete!
6. They ___ come to the party tomorrow. They're out of town.
7. I ___ hear the teacher clearly. It's too noisy in here.
8. She ___ play the piano beautifully. Everyone loves her music.
9. We ___ go to the museum today. It's closed on Mondays.
10. You ___ call me anytime you need help. I'll always be there for you.

Rewrite the sentences as questions.

1. He can play the guitar.
2. They can speak Spanish.
3. We can finish the project today.
4. You can help me with my homework.
5. I can see the mountains from my window.
6. She can solve difficult math problems.
7. We can go to the beach tomorrow.
8. He can't drive a car yet.
9. They can't hear the music.
10. I can't remember the answer.

Answer the questions with a short answer.

- | | |
|------------------------------------|------------|
| 1. Can she play the piano? | Yes, _____ |
| 2. Can they swim in the deep pool? | No, _____ |
| 3. Can we go to the park today? | Yes, _____ |
| 4. Can he cook dinner by himself? | No, _____ |
| 5. Can I borrow your book? | Yes, _____ |