

Transportation Workers

Transportation workers use different types of transportation to move goods and people from one place to another.

They provide a very important service.

Instructions: Place each picture of the transportation workers below into the correct column.

| Air Transportation | Land Transportation | Water Transportation |
|--------------------|---------------------|----------------------|
| | | |