

PRESENT SIMPLE VS. PRESENT CONTINUOUS

Circle the correct form.

_____ to New Zealand on Saturday. The flight _____ at 6.50 in the morning. _____ to check in two hours ahead, so _____ to the airport the night before, and _____ in an airport hotel (£200 a night, but it's better than getting up at 2.00 a.m.!). The first part of the flight, to Singapore, _____ 14 hours, and _____ the journey there for a couple of days. Then it's on to Auckland. The flight _____ at nearly midnight, but our friends _____ us at the airport, and _____ us for a week or so. Then _____ round North and South Island - _____ a camper van. _____ to be back in Auckland on 22nd February, but I don't think I'll want to come home!

Complete the sentences with the present simple or present continuous form of the verbs in brackets.

- 1 _____ you _____ camping or staying in hotels? (prefer)
- 2 We _____ of going on a safari next year. (think)
- 3 _____ we _____ to pack insect repellent? (need)
- 4 She _____ to Frankfurt for a business meeting next week. (fly)
- 5 -Can I help you?
-Yes, I _____ a charger for my phone. (look for)
- 6 -This hotel _____ a restaurant. (not have)
-It _____, we can eat in town. (not matter)
- 7 -Hi. Can you hear me? What _____ you _____? (do)
-I _____ by the pool and Tanya _____ spa treatment. Where are you? (read, have)
- 8 -What time _____ our flight _____? (leave)
-It _____ at 9.50 and it _____ at 12.10. (leave, arrive)