

"The Mystery of the Missing Sandwich"

Perspective 1:

I saw the sandwich sitting on the picnic table, wrapped neatly in shiny foil. My stomach growled. I had already eaten all my nuts, but I was still hungry. Maybe just a little bite wouldn't hurt. But as I reached for it, I heard footsteps and froze. Quickly, I darted under the table, hoping no one would see me.

Perspective 2:

I had been looking forward to this all day! Mom made my favorite sandwich—peanut butter and jelly with a sprinkle of granola inside for crunch. But when I got to the picnic table, it was gone! The foil wrapper was lying crumpled on the ground. "Who took my sandwich?" I yelled, looking around.

Perspective 3:

I was perched in a tree nearby, enjoying the view of the park. Suddenly, I spotted something shiny on the ground near the picnic table. A squirrel scurried by, its tail twitching nervously. Below, a boy was pacing back and forth, looking upset. "This is going to be interesting," I thought, flapping my wings and settling in to watch the drama unfold.

Questions

1. Who is speaking in the first perspective?

- A. The boy who lost the sandwich
- B. The squirrel under the table
- C. The bird in the tree
- D. The person who made the sandwich

2. What text clue shows the sandwich belonged to the boy?

- A. "I had already eaten all my nuts."
- B. "The foil wrapper was lying crumpled on the ground."
- C. "Mom made my favorite sandwich—peanut butter and jelly with granola."
- D. "I darted under the table, hoping no one would see me."

3. What is the bird doing during the story?

- A. Watching from a tree and observing the events
- B. Flying down to steal the sandwich
- C. Helping the boy find his sandwich
- D. Sitting on the table and eating crumbs

4. How can you tell the squirrel is the one who took the sandwich?

- A. The squirrel says, "Who took my sandwich?"
- B. The squirrel admits it was still hungry after eating nuts.
- C. The bird sees the squirrel holding the sandwich.
- D. The squirrel is pacing back and forth by the picnic table.

5. Why does the bird find the situation interesting?

- A. It enjoys watching the squirrel and the boy.
- B. It thinks the sandwich looks delicious.
- C. It plans to take the sandwich for itself.
- D. It knows who took the sandwich but won't tell.