

glasses eyes everything
student doctor blackboard

Greg's Glasses

Greg's teacher calls on him.

She points at the blackboard.

The teacher says, "Read the words, Greg."

He cannot read the words.

He cannot see them clearly.

"I cannot see them," he says sadly.

"That's okay," she tells him.

His teacher tells his mom.

His mom takes Greg to the eye doctor.

"You need glasses, Greg," the doctor says.

"You can pick any pair," Mom says.

Greg picks blue glasses.

He can read the board again!

He can see everything better.

Greg likes his new glasses.

Greg's Glasses (exercises)

1. Put the words in order to make each sentence.

likes / his / He / glasses / new

_____.

cannot / He / clearly / see / them

_____.

again / can / the / read / board / He

_____!

2. Fill in the blanks.

Greg can't see the _____.

He goes to visit the _____.

Greg gets new _____

3. Choose the correct answer.

Why is Greg sad?

- a. He cannot see the words.
- b. He is in trouble.
- c. He lost his dog.
- d. He does not feel well.

Who takes him to the eye doctor?

- a. his sister
- b. his dad
- c. his mom
- d. his teacher

What color are his new glasses?

- a. blue
- b. brown
- c. black
- d. red