

The Missouri Compromise

1. Popular Sovereignty - states should decide for _____.
2. _____ argued that Congress should be allowed to prohibit slavery.
3. _____ insisted that it should be up to the states to determine whether to abolish slavery.
4. The main issue of whether to abolish slavery or not was more about _____ power.
5. Missouri as an entrance of a slave state would _____ the balance of power in Congress.
6. Congress came up with a solution to _____.
7. In exchange for Missouri's admission as a slave state, the Northern Territory of Maine would be admitted as a free state to have _____ representation between the North and the South.
8. The 2nd part of the Compromise banned slavery throughout the remaining Louisiana Purchase territory _____ of the latitude line 3630.
9. _____ was one of the most important influences over the United States at this time.
