

1. They would rather we _____ (to book) the hotel in advance; it was fully booked when we arrived.
2. We would rather _____ (to finish) this project today than leave it for tomorrow.
3. He would rather you _____ (not, to bring up) that topic during the meeting tomorrow.
4. They'd rather _____ (to book) a different hotel during their vacation; this one was noisy and uncomfortable.
5. We would rather _____ (to start) the meeting now while everyone is here.
6. I would rather _____ (to watch) a documentary right now than a comedy movie.
7. I'd rather _____ (to tell) the truth from the start; lying only made things worse in the end.
8. He'd rather _____ (to stay) at home yesterday instead of going to that boring party, but he went there anyway.
9. I'd rather _____ (to take) the earlier train last week – I ended up being late for the meeting.
10. She would rather he _____ (to call) her last night instead of just texting.
11. They would rather we _____ (to arrive) earlier to the event; we missed the opening speech.
12. I would rather she _____ (to join) us for dinner next week instead of eating alone.
13. I would rather you _____ (to stay) here with me instead of going out tonight.
14. He would rather you _____ (to finish) your part of the project before the deadline last week.
15. He would rather _____ (to eat) a salad now than have something heavy for lunch.
16. She would rather he _____ (to apologize) immediately after the argument instead of waiting days to say sorry.
17. She'd rather _____ (to wear) the blue dress to the wedding; the other one didn't suit the occasion as well.
18. She would rather he _____ (to call) her now to discuss the plan instead of waiting until later.
19. I would rather _____ (to stay) home tonight than go out in this rain.
20. We'd rather _____ (not, to eat) there – the food was terrible.