

Date: Today is _____, _____.

Name: _____ Class: _____.

UNIT 5 WORLD FOOD LESSON 4 – STORY 1The Cooking Competition

1 Sam, Tia, and Amy have entered a cooking competition, but Tia is feeling nervous.

You have one hour to make a delicious dinner.

I hope I'll win!

I know I'm the best cook.

I don't think I'm good enough. I should go home.

2 Your time starts ... NOW!

What are you cooking, Tia?

I'm making sushi.

Oh, no! I've left my recipe at home!

3 But sushi is made with raw fish! That isn't cooking!

I'm making a fish curry. It's made with 20 ingredients.

Oh, no! I've used too much spice!

4 Oh, no! My shrimp is burned!

5 One minute left!

Your sushi looks good, Tia. I hope my spring rolls are cooked!

Spring rolls and sushi are so easy ...

6 The winner is ... Tia!

Really?!

Good job, Tia!

But my curry is made with 20 ingredients! The fish is cooked perfectly!

7 It's OK, Sam. We didn't win, but look what we have for dinner!

You're right, Amy. All our dishes look delicious. I'm sorry, Tia.

That's OK. Let's eat!

3 Complete for you.

- I the story.
- I think the story is .
- My favorite character is

4 Read again and circle the correct answer.

- What do the children have to make in the competition?
a a delicious lunch b a spicy dinner c
- Who thinks he / she is the best cook?
a b c
- What is Tia's sushi made with?
a b c
- Who wins the competition?
a b c

5 Write T (true) or F (false).

- The children must make a delicious dinner in two hours.
- Tia thinks she's a very good cook.
- Amy doesn't have a recipe for her spring rolls.
- Sam thinks Amy's spring rolls and Tia's sushi are easy to make.
- Sam is happy when Tia wins the competition.

 F

Think, Feel, Grow

- How do Amy and Sam feel when Tia wins the competition?
- How does Amy help Sam to feel better when they lose the competition?
- How do you feel if you lose a competition?

I was in an art competition at school, but I didn't win. I was a bit disappointed. But then my friend Freya won, and I was very happy for her!