

1. Put the letters into the correct order to write the name of the holiday.

O D C A V I Y T R Y

2. Click the picture to listen to the word then match the words to the pictures.

veteran

peace

monument

fireworks

war

military parade

awards

eternal flame

red carnations

3. Complete the text with the words from task 2. Then click paragraphs to listen to the text.

Victory Day

The 9th of May is a very important day for Russian people. They celebrate Victory Day. In the morning there is a military _____ on Red Square in Moscow.

In the afternoon in all cities and towns there are concerts for _____.

They wear their _____ and people give them flowers and thank them for _____ and blue sky above their heads.

A lot of people put red _____ to the eternal _____ and _____ to heroes of the war. In the evening people watch _____ and see films about _____ at home.