

Date:

Name:

Worksheet: Who Really Invented Facebook?

Part A: Multiple Choice Questions

1. What was the original idea behind the Harvard Connection? (Lines 13-16)
 - a) A platform for students to share photos
 - b) A social network exclusively for Harvard students
 - c) A website for selling textbooks
 - d) A news-sharing website
2. Why did the Winklevoss twins and Divya Narendra take Zuckerberg to court? (Lines 57-61)
 - a) They believed he hacked their website
 - b) They claimed he stole their idea and delayed their project
 - c) He refused to help them with programming
 - d) He shut down their website
3. Why did the Winklevoss twins and Divya Narendra return to court in 2011 after settling in 2008? (70-74)
 - A) They believed Zuckerberg had violated another university rule.
 - B) They discovered new evidence that Zuckerberg had withheld important information.
 - C) They wanted to renegotiate their Facebook shares after the company went public.
 - D) They were dissatisfied with the fame Zuckerberg had achieved.

Part B: Sentence Completion

6. Mark Zuckerberg originally created a website called Facemash, which allowed students _____ . (Lines 40-43)
7. The fact that Zuckerberg launched THEFACEBOOK.COM shortly after meeting with the Harvard Connection team implies that he may have _____ . (Lines 22-28, 58-62)
8. The court's decision not to change the original agreement in 2011 suggests that they viewed the initial settlement as _____. (Lines 70-76)

Part C: True or False

5. Zuckerberg claimed that although he had agreed to help with the Harvard Connection, he had not stolen their idea. _____ (Lines 59-66)
6. In 2011, the Winklevoss twins and Divya Narendra decided not to take their case to the Supreme Court, which ended their fight over Facebook. _____ (Lines 74-77)

Part 3: Critical Thinking and Writing Write a short response (3-5 sentences) for the question.

1. If you were a judge in the case, what decision would you have made? Explain your reasoning. (Based on Lines 58-76)

9. to compare photos of classmates.
10. used the idea from their project to develop his own social network.
11. legally fair, even if the Winklevoss twins disagreed.

True or False

True- 59-66

5. Reference: Lines 59-66 (He admitted to agreeing to do programming but insisted he hadn't stolen the idea.)

TrueReference: Lines 72-73 (They decided not to go to the Supreme Court, ending the seven-year battle.)