

ANALYTICAL AND HORTATORY EXPOSITION TEXT

🔍 Example of Analytical Exposition Text ✕

🔍 Example of Hortatory Exposition Text ✕

Name:

Class:

ANALYTICAL AND HORTATORY EXPOSITION TEXT

• TASK 1 - Drag and Drop

Instruction: Complete the sentence by dragging the correct words into the blanks.

WORD BANK

ideas

thought

recommendation

Facts

thesis

1. An analytical exposition has a _____, arguments, and reiteration.
2. Words like "furthermore" and "moreover" help to connect _____.
3. A strong argument uses _____ to support the opinion.
4. Hortatory exposition ends with a _____ to tell the reader what to do.
5. The word "opinion" means a person's _____ about something.

• TASK 2 - Match the title

Instruction: Draw a line to match each title with the correct text type: 'Analytical Exposition Text' or 'Hortatory Exposition Text'.

Why We Should Reduce Plastic Waste to Save Our Planet ●

The Impact of Social Media on Mental Health ●

The Influence of AI on Human Creativity ●

People Must Stop Spreading Fake News on Social Media ●

The Benefits of Learning Multiple Languages ●

Analytical Exposition Text

Hortatory Exposition Text

ANALYTICAL AND HORTATORY EXPOSITION TEXT

• TASK 3 - Audio Listening and Fill the blank

Instruction: Listen to the audio carefully, then fill in the blanks in the sentences according to the words you hear.

Bullying is a serious problem that hurts many students. It makes them feel sad, scared, and [1] _____. This is very dangerous because it can affect their mental health and future.

First, bullying can make people lose confidence. Victims often feel afraid and lonely, so they avoid [2] _____ to others. This can make students become not focus at school and affect their [3] _____. Next, bullying can cause serious stress. Many victims feel worried all the time, even when they grow up. In the worst cases, bullying can lead to suicide.

In conclusion, we [4] _____ end bullying now. Schools should have strict rules, and students should help if they see bullying. Stopping bullying will make school a safer and happier place. When students feel [5] _____, they can learn and make friends more easily.

Vocabulary box

• Fill in this table if you find any words that you think are difficult in the text you listen/read (optional).

ANALYTICAL AND HORTATORY EXPOSITION TEXT

• TASK 4 - Short Answer

Instruction: Answer the questions below in short and clear sentences.

"Homework should be less stressful for students. Some students spend too much time doing homework, which makes them tired and unhappy. Teachers should give less homework so students have time to rest and enjoy other activities. A balanced life is important for students to learn well."

1 What is the main opinion in the text?

Answer: _____

2 Why is too much homework bad for students?

Answer: _____

3 What does the text suggest about homework?

Answer: _____

4 What is one benefit of a balanced life for students based on the text?

Answer: _____

5 What is one solution that provided in the text?

Answer: _____

Vocabulary box

• Fill in this table if you find any words that you think are difficult in the text you read (opsional).