

Describing products; innovation

1 Match the words with their opposites.

- | | | |
|----------------|----------|-----------------|
| 1 comfortable | d | a hard to use |
| 2 reasonable | — | b useless |
| 3 innovative | — | c low quality |
| 4 well-made | — | d uncomfortable |
| 5 high-quality | — | e expensive |
| 6 handy | — | f unreliable |
| 7 easy to use | — | g old-fashioned |
| 8 practical | — | h unwearable |
| 9 wearable | — | i impractical |
| 10 reliable | — | j badly made |

2 Choose the correct option.

- I can't afford that new phone. It's too expensive/wearable.
- My laptop bag has broken again. It's very reliable/badly made.
- A tablet is really high quality/handy for looking up things quickly on the Internet.
- Sending a card is so practical/old-fashioned. You should use social media.
- My new computer is hard to use/comfortable and the instructions are really complicated.
- These boots are old and full of holes. They're well made/unwearable.

3 Complete the words in these sentences.

- I think there'll be a sharp rise in driverless vehicles in the next few years.
- My friends and I love new advances in technology. We can lease go of the past easily.
- My grandma can't adapt to new technology. She finds it a real struggle.
- Scientists think that wearable devices are fast approach. I'd embrace this change.
- My coach is eager to try intelligent running shoes. She thinks they could be a major breakthrough.
- Everything is even really fast, and there are so many mind-blowing changes.

Expressions with get

4 Complete the words to label the photos.

1 get better at running

2 get ready to go out

3 get down to studying

4 get into the mood

5 get rid of old things

6 get on your nails

5 Complete the sentences with the words in the box.

better care out of (x2) over sophisticated

- If I was in the hospital, I wouldn't mind getting my care from a robot nurse.
- I finished this level much quicker than last time. I'm getting better at this game.
- I had the flu last week, but I soon got over it and went back to school.
- Older people find getting sophisticated low cars quite difficult.
- I had to speak to the gym teacher, so I got out of cleaning the classroom.
- Phones are getting more better these days. They're often better than computers.

