

Hand-Woven Fabric

Choose the correct answer.

1. What is the main purpose of weaving in Thai society?
 - a) To create modern fashion
 - b) To bring the essence of local authenticity through patterns and symbols
 - c) To produce industrial textiles
 - d) To export fabrics to other countries
2. Who is primarily responsible for weaving fabrics in traditional Thai society?
 - a) Men
 - b) Children
 - c) Women
 - d) Elders
3. What is the key characteristic of the Northeastern region's fabric?
 - a) Teen Chok
 - b) Madmi
 - c) Yok Dok
 - d) Yok Muk
4. Which natural material is used to dye fabrics purple?
 - a) Noni roots
 - b) Indigo
 - c) Jambolan plum
 - d) Turmeric
5. What does the color of a Thai Phuan woman's tube skirt indicate?
 - a) Her age
 - b) Her marital status
 - c) Her occupation
 - d) Her social class

True or False

1. Weaving in Thai society is considered a way to integrate local authenticity with thoughts and beliefs.
(True / False)
2. Men in traditional Thai society were responsible for weaving fabrics, while women made weaving tools.
(True / False)
3. The Teen Chok fabric is famous in the Northern region of Thailand.
(True / False)
4. Natural dyes are made from flowers, leaves, barks, seeds, and roots of local plants.
(True / False)
5. The Yok Dok technique is used to create patterns by controlling yarns to intertwine up and down.
(True / False)

