

Grade 10, Unit 5, Lesson 2, p. 108-109
The Objective-with-the-Infinitive Construction

1. Choose the correct variant.

- a. We expect the guests ... in time.
A. coming B. come C. to come D. were coming
- b. All students could notice the teacher ... the classroom.
A. entering B. enters C. enter D. to enter
- c. How can you make him ... the truth?
A. to believe B. believing C. believe D. will believe
- d. Did you want your mother ... so many friends at the party?
A. to invite B. inviting C. invites D. invite
- e. She noticed me ... the letter.
A. sends B. to send C. sending D. send

2. Change the following sentences as in the example:

Example: We heard that he made a report on his discoveries about British historic heritage. → We heard him make a report on his discoveries about British historic heritage.

- a. Jill saw that he had pressed the bell.
- b. I did not expect that they would come in time.
- c. He wants that this project will be finished.
- d. I believe that you will keep your promise.
- e. I heard that they argued during the session.
- f. I expect that my friends will arrive in an hour.

3. Join the sentences as in the example:

Example: She crossed the road on red light. I saw her this morning. → I saw her cross the road on red light this morning.

- a. The band played my favourite song. I listened to it with great pleasure.
I listened ...
- b. Somebody called my name. I heard it.
I heard ...
- c. He touched the highest point of the mountains. Jane saw them.
Jane saw ...
- d. The students had to explore the sites and do research. The teacher gave them a project.
The teacher wanted ...
- e. The earth moved. I felt it.
I felt ...