Australia – a great place to be

When people think of Australia, they often picture beautiful beaches, lovely weather, and lots of dangerous animals – such as saltwater crocodiles and taipan snakes! It's true that we have these things, but Australia is more interesting than you might think. Australia is in the South Pacific and it's the world's biggest island. We don't have any borders with other countries and our closest neighbors are Papua New Guinea and East Timor. Australia is the sixth largest country in the world. It's thirty times bigger than the United Kingdom, but nearly three times more people live in the UK. In the center of the country there is a lot of desert. Most Australians live near the coast, where the country's biggest cities are. The good weather means we can do lots of outdoor activities. Summer lasts from December to February, and winter from June to August. However, Australia is enormous and the weather isn't the same everywhere. The north has two types of weather – very wet and very dry! The center stays dry all year round. But in the south, the weather changes from season to season. Summer in the south is hot, but winter can be cold, wet, and windy – you can even go skiing in the mountains! Come and visit.

Sandy:	Yes, of course.
Interviewer:	First of all, can you tell me your names?
Sandy:	I'm Sandy Pillpe and this is my husband, Dany.
Interviewer:	And are you from Beauford?
Dany:	No, we're from Los Angeles. We're visiting our daughter – she's at the university here.
Interviewer:	Can you tell me about your last vacation?
Dany:	We had a week in Peru, in South America. It was the most amazing place in the world and the weather was great all week. There are lots of interesting things to do there – we visited Macchu Picchu, the ancient Inca's fortress, and we ate fantastic food. It wasn't expensive either. And the hotel was very comfortable – great views from our bedroom window.
Sandy:	Well, I didn't enjoy it. It was cheap and the weather was nice, but Macchu Picchu wasn't very exciting. You have to walk a lot to visit all the ruins and it was really exhausting! Also the internet connection at our hotel was very poor and I couldn't post my Instagram pictures while we were there. Cuzco is really quieter than I thought it would be.
Interviewer:	So, where are you going to go for your next vacation?
Sandy:	Well, I want to go somewhere exciting. Maybe New York. I can go shopping during the day and Dany can visit some of the museums as he is interested in history. Then, in the evening we can visit the statue of Liberty, or the Empire State building and eat out in some of New York's restaurants.
Dany:	No, thanks! I don't like big cities and sightseeing is boring. I prefer to find places that are quiet and relaxing but with a great history. I'm going to buy some tickets and visit the Great Wall of China next time.
