Answer the questions. For questions 7–13, choose A, B or C.

My last holiday

A. Max

I went on holiday with my friends. The flight was fine, but it took two hours by bus to get to the hotel – I didn't enjoy that! The hotel was noisy and the staff weren't friendly, but it didn't matter because we spent all our time on the beach, a short walk away. We tried lots of new dishes in the restaurants in the town. It was hard to sleep with such high temperatures, but we had a fantastic time, and the best thing was, we spent almost nothing once we arrived!

B. Felipe

The drive to our hotel from the airport was along lovely country roads. The hotel my wife and I stayed in was quite expensive. The people who worked there were wonderful, but I wasn't so sure about the hotel restaurant – the desserts were fine, but the main courses weren't very good. It was cloudy and rainy most days, but it didn't matter at all because we went to walk in the countryside, not to lie on a beach.

C. Nikhil

My family and I drove across the USA last year. We stayed in lots of different hotels. I don't know how much we spent because my parents paid. There was a lot of driving, but my dad enjoyed that. The weather was fantastic, and I couldn't believe the differences in what people ate from place to place. It was good to be with the family, because there was always someone to talk to, or to do things with.

Part 3: Questions 14-18.

For each question, choose the correct answer.

My name's Zack and I'm 14. This summer my dad and I travelled to Tanzania to climb Mount Kilimanjaro, Africa's highest mountain. My dad and I have climbed many mountains in Scotland since I was little, but, at 5,895 metres, Kilimanjaro was higher than anything I'd done before. Planning the trip took months, including a few weeks training in the mountains of Switzerland.

Over 20,000 people climb Kilimanjaro every year. Some do it because the countryside is very interesting, going from rainforest to snow at the top. Our reason was that you can get to the top without ropes and special climbing kit. There are also few storms on the mountain, but we only learnt that later.

Some UK travel companies only take people older than fifteen up Kilimanjaro. I thought this was strange because the youngest person to climb it was only seven. But a company in Tanzania with experience of climbing with kids allowed us to book their trip.

Climbing above 4,000 metres can be difficult because some people get terrible headaches. I was fine, but others in our group were sick, including Dad, so I had to look after him as we got near the top. The other problem was he lost his gloves. His hands got so cold, he couldn't feel them. This was dangerous, so I gave him my socks to keep his hands warm. It took us six days altogether and it was my best experience ever. I'd do it again tomorrow.

14. Where did Zack and his dad practise before climbing Kilimanjaro?

- A. Scotland
- B. Switzerland
- C. Tanzania

15. Why did Zack and his dad want to climb Kilimanjaro?

- A. Not much equipment is needed.
- B. The countryside is beautiful.
- C. There aren't storms on the mountain.

16. What problem was there with booking the trip?

- A. Not many UK companies offer climbing holidays.
- B. It was hard to book with Tanzanian travel companies.
- C. Some travel companies thought Zack wasn't old enough.

17. What does Zack say about some of the other people in their group?

- A. They were surprised by how cold it was.
- B. They became ill as they climbed the mountain.
- C. They weren't wearing the right clothes for climbing.

18. What is the best title for this article?

- A. A difficult trip for me
- B. My dad's first big climb
- C. Helping my dad on the mountain
