1. What is a simile?

a) A type of animal

b) A comparison using "like" or "as"

c) A type of food

d) A song

2. Which word is used in a simile to compare two things?

a) Not

b) Like or as

c) And

d) Because

3. What does a simile help an author do?

a) Make the text longer

b) Create a mood

c) Tell jokes

d) Describe only objects

4. What is the mood in the simile "like a volcano" in the text?

a) Happy

b) Calm

c) Suspenseful and frightening

d) Boring

5. How does the simile "like a volcano" work?

a) It makes you think of something funny

b) It compares Emma's father to a volcano

c) It describes Emma’s house

d) It tells you about the weather

6. What mood does the author want to create with the volcano simile?

a) Excited

b) Scary and suspenseful

c) Happy and peaceful

d) Sad and lonely

7. Why do authors use figurative language like similes?

a) To make the story harder to read

LIVEWORKSHEETS

b) To describe something directly

c) To add more meaning and feelings

d) To make the story longer

8. What type of language is used in the phrase "like a volcano"?

a) Literal language

b) Figurative language

c) Simple language

d) Direct language

9. What does the simile "like a volcano" tell us about Emma's father?

a) He is calm and peaceful

b) He is struggling to control his emotions

c) He is happy and friendly

d) He is tired and sleepy

10. Which of these is a simile?

a) Emma is running fast.

b) Emma is like a bird in the sky.

c) Emma loves ice cream.

d) Emma went to the park.

11. What is the main purpose of using a simile in the text?

a) To make the story longer

b) To compare two things and create a feeling

c) To tell the time

d) To talk about nature

LIVEWORKSHEETS