

Put the following sentences into the indirect speech form; introduce them with He/She said or He/She told me.

1. They went away last month.
2. They will be coming back soon.
3. They must return to London next week.
4. I am free tonight.
5. You don't work hard enough.
6. He arrived in Hungary last week.
7. We shall see you at your place tomorrow.
8. I feel ill today.
9. He is going to become a doctor.
10. I buy several newspapers every day.
11. She is an excellent cook.
12. We learnt all this a long time ago.
13. He has studied here for two years.
14. They aren't dancing now.
15. It was snowing hard when I got up this morning.
16. I shall come if I am free.
17. I should come if I were free.
18. I should have come if I had been free.
19. I was sleeping when they opened the door.
20. Actions speak louder than words.