Last summer, I was planning on taking an airplane for the first time, but there were many things I didn't know. For example, how many suitcases should I take or what can I bring in my backpack? So, I asked my mom for help, and she told me that the more luggage you bring, the more expensive the ticket is. So, she suggested bringing only the things I needed. She also told me not to take dangerous items like large batteries or sharp objects because I'll have to go through customs. My mom also said not to lose my boarding pass or passport because I'd need them to get on the plane. Finally, she told me I needed to find the baggage claim after the airplane landed to pick up my suitcases. I'm happy my mom was able to help me know more about air traveling because it made the experience better.
