Read an email from Eric to a friend, Juan. Choose the best word or phrase for each space.

Hi Juan,

How are things? You can't get Channel 62 in your country, can you? There was a cool program on last night about healthy eating.

One of the main things was the advice about reading stuff on the internet. The presenter – she was a scientist – said that, (16) _____ all these websites talking about detox, it's a myth that you can eat certain things to do that. Our organs actually detox naturally.

She also said that there are some (17) _____ which are good for you – I didn't know that! She suggested eating salad with olive oil or having nuts, for example, because these things protect our organs.

There was also a guy on the program who tried only eating junk food for a month, and he said that he felt terrible. The scientist said that this kind of food is not really (18) _____, although it gives you lots of calories. The problem is that it is low in vitamins and other things which our bodies need.

At the end of the program, she said that it was important for governments to (19) _____ healthy living – for example, by stopping companies advertising candy and soda during children's TV programs.

But, at the end of the program, her (20) _____ was that we all need to do a lot more to stay healthy, because so many children in countries all around the world are obese.

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D to indicate the correct answer to each of the questions.

The Eiffel Tower is a very famous tower in Paris, France. It was named after the engineer who designed it, Alexandre Eiffel. The tower was built in 1889.

Alexandre Eiffel was asked to build the tower when France decided to have a big fair to exhibit its goods and wares. The tower was located in the middle of the fair as a special attraction. When the structure first started to take shape, the people of France did not like it. They thought it looked like a giant skeleton and was not attractive at all. However, when the tower was finally completed and lighted up at night, the people quickly changed their minds. It was an enchanting sight and now looked like a tower made of lace.

The Eiffel Tower is sometimes considered one of the seven wonders of the modern world. It is 300 meters high and people can take an elevator all the way to the top. From the tower, they can get a marvelous view of the city and the River Seine which runs through it.
